Updated Information on the Expert Committee Activities

The Royal Philatelic Society London building at 15 Abchurch Lane is currently closed to members and visitors in accordance with UK government restrictions. As the building is closed to members, the meetings of the Expert Committee on 3rd June and 8th July 2020 have therefore had to be cancelled. It is anticipated that the following meetings, on 12th August and 23rd September 2020, will take place but this is subject to any updated government restrictions as it moves towards loosening the lock-down rules.

With the swift moving situation, it was not possible to return all items that were with the Committee prior to the lock-down and it will take some time once things are back to normal to clear up this backlog. We would therefore ask for submitters understanding for any delays. Queries on specific items will be dealt with as soon as possible.

However, material is still being accepted for the next meeting of the Committee and, despite the building being closed to the members of the Committee, arrangements have been made with staff to receive material by post, but not by any other means. These items are being kept in secure storage until the Expert Committee Secretary returns and normal activity can be resumed in the building.

Any enquiry should be addressed by email to experts@rpsl.limited and these will receive responses as quickly as possible.
