1 Sale

P R E F A C E.

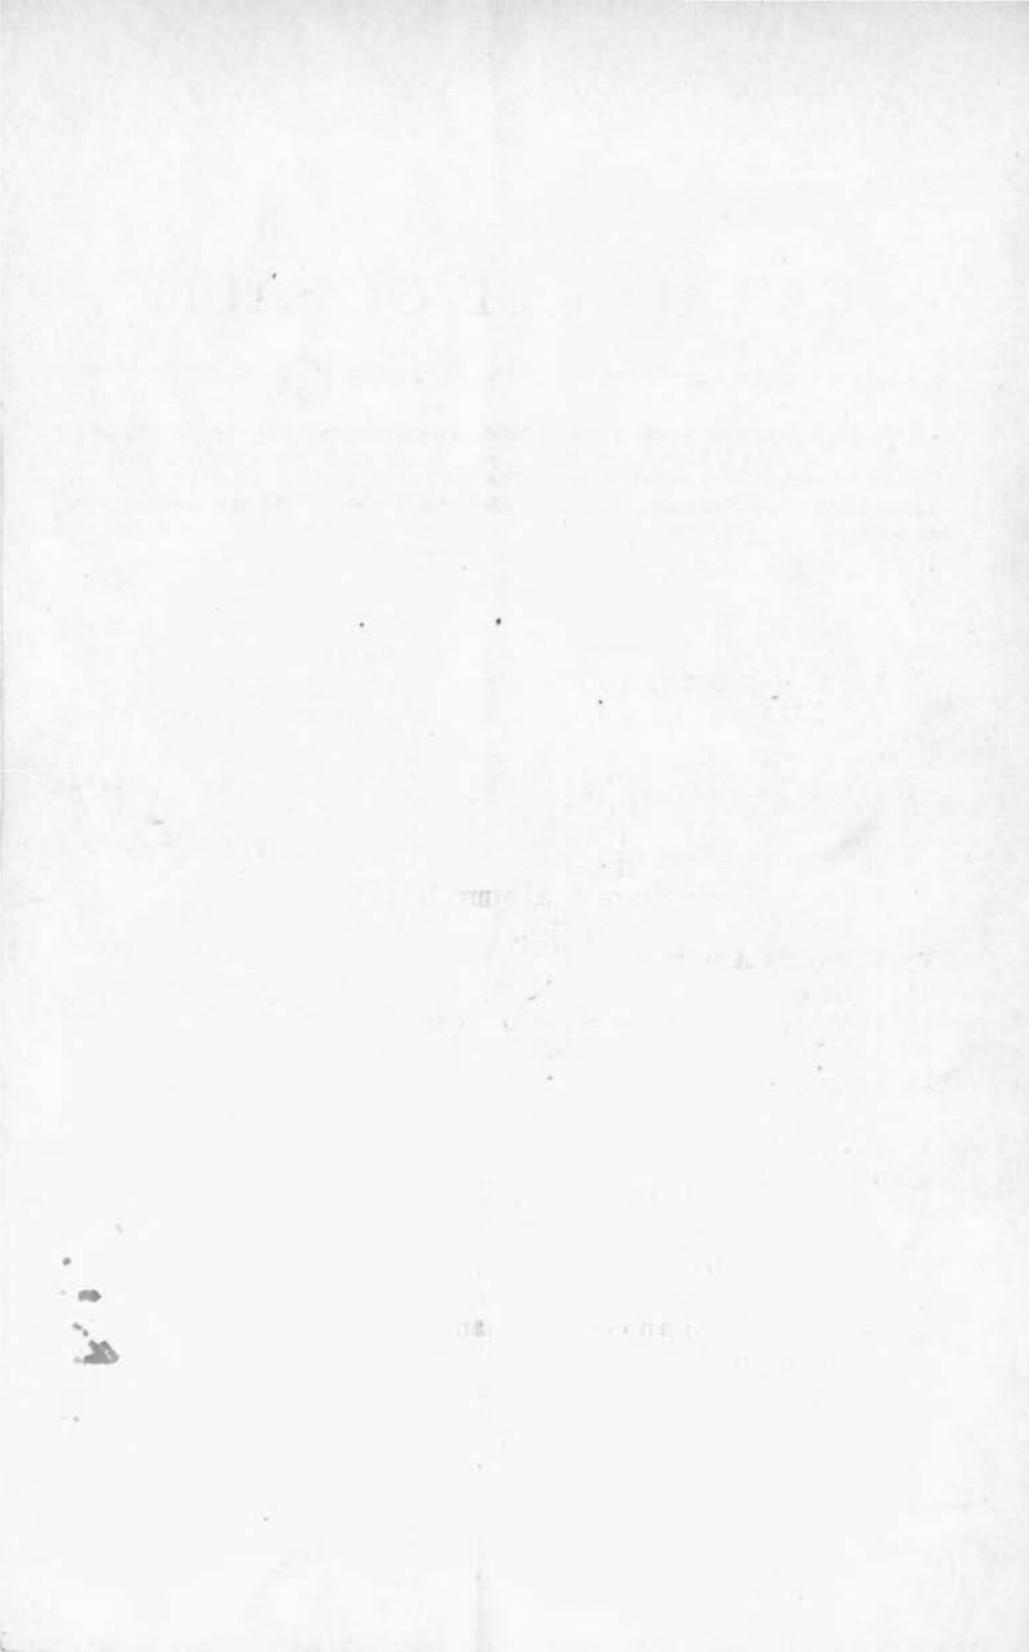

The creditors of a European dealer wishing to dispose of the stock of the Bankrupt, sent them to J. W. SCOTT & Co., the stamp dealers, 34 Liberty Street, to sell, and they wishing to effect a speedy sale, have adopted this mode of disposing of the goods.

In assorting the stamps for sale, J. W. S. & Co. have endeavored to put the stamps in as small lots as possible to give collectors an opportunity of improving their collections at small cost. This arrangement has crowded out a large quantity of common stamps, which the compilers hope to offer for sale by the same medium in a short time.

Amongst the stamps particularly noticeable for their scarcity may be mentioned the 5 and 10 cent St. Louis, the $\frac{1}{2}$ peso, Peru, the 5 cent Sandwich Island, and many exceedingly scarce proofs and essays.

Several small collections have been added to the sale, which will give novices an opportunity to commence collecting at a small outlay.

A variety of first-class albums all perfectly new will also be found catalogued.

CATALOGUE OF SALE.

NOTE.—Every stamp in each lot is warranted genuine, and the money will be refunded for any that is found otherwise. There are however a few (not more than six) counterfeit stamps in some of the collections, but these are all common ones, and have not been reckoned in giving the number of stamps contained in the collection.

Prices from Scott's Own List.

P R E F A C E.

In preparing this second collection of postage stamps for public sale, the compiler hopes that the arrangement is such as to suit all parties, especial care having been taken to divide the collection into sets, except in the case of scarce stamps, which have invariably been catalogued separate, so that the collector may not have to buy any more stamps than he really needs.

Particular attention is called to the fact, that this sale being composed of but one collection, there are no duplicates contained in the entire lot. Amongst the lots that are particularly noticeable for their scarcity, may be mentioned the magnificent set of U. S. revenue proofs; these were all printed from the plates when first engraved, and are of remarkable beauty, and contain all the scarce ones, such as the $20 probate of will; this set is supposed to be unique. The companion set of Canadian revenue specimens show exquisite workmanship in the engraving, and are printed in the greatest variety of brilliant colors. The U. S. essays are very fine, and would prove a valuable addition to any collection in the world. The elegant and scarce Victoria essay is worthy of notice, as also the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia specimens and proofs. Amongst the scarce stamps may be named the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick shilling stamps, the former of which is in extraordinary fine condition. The Luzon stamps are very scarce, and worth the particular attention of buyers. But to call attention to all the varieties contained in this valuable collection, would occupy more space than we have at our command, so we must conclude by remarking that nearly every stamp in the book is in remarkably good condition, and all have been faithfully catalogued.

CATALOGUE OF SALE.

NOTE.—Every stamp in each lot is warranted genuine, and the money will be refunded for any that is found otherwise, except those specially stated to be otherwise.

PREFACE.

In calling attention to this our third Auction Sale of postage stamps, but few remarks are needed. as this large and well-selected collection is widely known to all lovers of the science.

The sale, as will be seen by the catalogue, embraces nearly every stamp, of course including many of great scarcity, among which may be named many original locals. The used carrier's stamp, head Franklin, blue on rose. The set first issue Buenos Ayres, the Guacho stamps; the very full collection of New Grenada stamps, including some not even catalogued in the price lists. Used, early issues of British Guiana, and, in fact, nearly a complete collection.

Nearly every stamp is unused, and when not expressly stated otherwise, this will be understood.

The stamps will be on exhibition at the salerooms, Clinton Hall, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. of the day of sale, and purchasers will find it to their interest to call and examine the goods before purchasing.

The collection is divided into nearly 600 lots, and in view of the large number, collectors are advised to bid quick or they will certainly lose many of the lots that they may have wished to purchase.

In conclusion, we wish to call attention to several mistakes which through haste in preparing the catalogue, have crept in.

- Lot 135 should read 6½d. instead of 6d.
- Lot 442 do. do. 2 varieties instead of 7.
- Lot 493 do. do. 4 cents, instead of for C.
- Lot 524 do. do. Hong Kong instead of Hamburg.
- Lot 540 is unused instead of used
- Lot 564 should read 5 cents instead of 3 cents.
- Lot 575 do. do. 20 varieties instead of 30 varieties.
- Lot 590 do. do. registered instead of elephant.

INTRODUCTION.

This collection, the property of a private gentleman, embraces many rare and choice specimens of Colonial and Continental Paper Money, one of the most interesting of which is the Vermont note (lot 40 of the catalogue), issued Feb., 1781; the motto, "Vermont calls for Justice," and the chain, containing thirteen connected links and an additional one, lonely in its separation, is very suggestive, while the rarity of the note makes it a desirable acquisition to the collector. Among the many rarities are the following: North Carolina $3 note, April 2, 1776 (beehive); the New Hampshire 10 pence note, June 28, 1776; New Jersey note, April 16, 1764 (seldom found in such good condition); New Jersey $5 note, June 9, 1780 (extremely rare—found in but few collections); New Hampshire note, Aug. 24, 1775 (also very rare), signed by Nich. Gilman; North Carolina $25 note, May 10, 1780; Georgia $30 note, May 4, 1778; Continental notes, Sept. 26, 1778 (complete set printed on green paper); Massachusetts (sword in hand) notes, Dec. 7, 1775 (very rare), and many other scarce, fine and interesting notes.

The collection of Confederate Paper Money was formed by a gentleman residing in Raleigh, N. C., who devoted considerable time and invested money, without stint, to complete his series of all notes issued by the State of North Carolina during the the rebellion, and in this way obtained many other state and local notes. It is seldom that an opportunity offers for buyers to purchase choice specimens of paper money at a public sale, and the compiler feels confident that the notes will, in every instance, bear out the description and give to distant bidders perfect satisfaction.

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country. It is noted that the population is increasing rapidly and that the standard of living is low. The government is trying to improve the situation by introducing reforms. The second part of the report deals with the economic situation. It is noted that the economy is in a state of stagnation and that the government is trying to stimulate it. The third part of the report deals with the social situation. It is noted that there is a high level of unemployment and that the government is trying to create jobs. The fourth part of the report deals with the political situation. It is noted that there is a high level of corruption and that the government is trying to reform it.

The report concludes that the country is in a state of crisis and that the government must take immediate action to reform it. It is recommended that the government should introduce a series of reforms, including the abolition of the monarchy, the introduction of a constitution, and the holding of free elections.

PREFACE.

J. W. Scott & Co. beg to call the attention of stamp collectors to the following catalogue of stamps to be sold by auction in London on the 18th of March. As this is the first time that stamps have ever been sold by auction in Europe, it may not be out of place to make a few remarks concerning the way we have conducted our American sales, which, we may state, have always given perfect satisfaction to all concerned. The catalogue, it is believed, faithfully describes every lot, but intending purchasers would do well to visit the collection Saturday morning, and make any notes they may require for their guidance, as the lots are sold from catalogue.

It was our original intention to offer Mr. Scott's entire collection, but as this would have required a three days' sale, we thought that as this is the first attempt of the kind in this country, we would select such of the principal stamps, sets, envelopes, &c., as could be crowded into one day's sale, and should it prove a success, the balance can be made into another sale.

Every adhesive stamp in the collection is the finest possible procurable specimen of a cancelled stamp, unless otherwise stated; great care has been taken to procure fine specimens, and from the great facilities of the late owner, it will be seen at once that every stamp must be very fine. The locals are of course not quite as fine specimens, as it is impossible to get more than one or two to pick from, but still they are mostly fine copies. The envelopes are all unused and uncut and in fine condition, unless otherwise stated.

It is, perhaps, needless to make any remarks about the scarcity of the different stamps; the collection contains dozens that it is next to impossible to duplicate, and perhaps half-a-dozen that are really unique, and it is quite certain that there is not a collection in the world that would not be enriched by a dozen or so of the fine stamps here catalogued.

The United States provisionals are perfect, the locals have all been collected with great care, and are of course original and authentic; the Confederate provisionals are mostly the oldest known specimens of the particular stamp, and are certainly original.

In conclusion, J. W. Scott & Co. inform collectors that they warrant every stamp in the collection, and will return the money for any proved not genuine at any time.

CATALOGUE.

Every adhesive stamp in the collection is the finest possible procurable specimen of a cancelled stamp, unless otherwise stated. The envelopes are all unused and uncut, and in fine condition, unless otherwise described.

CATALOGUE.

PART FIRST.—CALIFORNIA LOCALS.

THESE stamps are all in good condition, and are mostly on U. S. stamped envelopes, the figures following the name of the stamp thus—"on 3 c. 53," stands for 3 cents, 1853 issue, U. S. envelope. We have not made any remarks on the degrees of scarcity of the different varieties, as they are not sufficiently well known for our notes to be of any service; the price each variety brings in this sale will be the best standard of their value. In conclusion, we beg to remind collectors that there is a very small chance of such an opportunity again presenting itself to obtain a collection of these rare and interesting stamps at your own price.
