PRESS RELEASE

Royal members show postal stationery

Eleven members of The Royal Philatelic Society London provided an afternoon of Postal Stationery 'Uncovered' at the meeting held on 23 May.

The displays ranged from 1840 Prepaid Parliamentary Envelopes, the usage of the Mulready Postal Stationery, Queen Victoria Embossed Penny Pink Envelopes and Advertising Rings and British postal stationery for use overseas, to the postal stationery of Ceylon, Mauritius, Sierra Leone, Orange Free State, Bolivia and Denmark, plus The Wells Fargo Express Co.

Introducing the displays Alan Huggins commented how in many cases it is not fully appreciated the scarcity of much postal stationery. Many extremely fine items were on show, demonstrating the diversity that can be enjoyed through stationery.
