PRESS RELEASE

Members entertain from Scotland

No fewer than 31 members of The Royal Philatelic Society London living in Scotland provided the displays for the meeting of the Society held on the afternoon of 4 December. The popularity of such meetings, at which a diverse range of material is shown, was evidenced by the fact that it attracted an amazing total of 135 Fellows, members and guests.

The organiser of the meeting, Jeffrey Stone, who had brought the displays together, thanked all who contributed. Thanks that were echoed by Peter Cockburn, giving the vote of thanks, who praised all who had shown for providing a wealth of outstanding material, thus ensuring an enjoyable and entertaining afternoon.
