PRESS RELEASE

Experimental summer meeting a success

The experiment by The Royal Philatelic Society London of holding a summer meeting proved a great success, with almost 100 members and guests attending the event on 28 July.

The aim was to involve as many members as possible, and to choose an area not seen at a recent meeting. The result was an afternoon display of Latin America, with no fewer than 16 members providing material.

The event was coordinated by John Shaw, who thanked all who had contributed, and the staff at the 'Royal' for their help, adding that all had been privileged to see 'a wonderful range of material with some stunning items'.

Those wishing to visit The Royal Philatelic Society London at 41 Devonshire Place, London W1G 6JY, or be a guest at one of its meetings, are asked to contact the Administrative Office (020 7486 1044).
