PRESS RELEASE

Exceptional display of railway station cancellations

Members of The Royal Philatelic Society London were treated to an 'exceptional display' of Great Britain Railway Station Cancellations from 1840 given by Bill Pipe at the meeting held on 23 March. The accolade was made by Yvonne Wheatley FRPSL, giving the vote of thanks for a display of a remarkable and comprehensive assembly of covers.

As Yvonne explained, with 'often just one cover known', bringing together this material was no easy task, especially as invariably the covers feature very clear postmarks.

In replying, Bill stated that giving this display had been a 'special, absolute pleasure', a delight to be able to show members 'his passion', one that all thoroughly enjoyed.

Those wishing to visit The Royal Philatelic Society London at 41 Devonshire Place, London W1G 6JY, or be a guest at one of its meetings, are asked to contact the Administrative Office (020 7486 1044).

Frank Walton RDP, FRPSL, President of The Royal Philatelic Society London (left), thanks Bill Pipe for his display.
